1. THE APPLICANT UNDERSTANDS AND AGREES:

(a) That the Applicant will be responsible for payment of all charges relative to preparation, execution and registration of such documents as may be required by the Centre For Business And Economic Development (hereinafter referred to as the Corporation) or its solicitors, in the event this application is approved, such fees will be deducted from any monies advanced to the undersigned.

(b) That the terms and conditions of any financing which may be authorized will be set forth in a Letter of Offer, for agreement and acceptance by the Applicant.

(c) That the Applicant will notify the Corporation immediately of any application pending and under consideration by another lender, or if negotiations are entered into, or an offer of financing is received, during the period of the Corporation's consideration of this application, and will instruct the bank(s) to give the Corporation full information concerning the Applicant's affairs.

(d) That the statements made herein are for the express purpose of obtaining financing from the Corporation and are to the best of the Applicant's knowledge and belief true and correct. The Applicant understands that additional information in support of this application must be supplied to the Corporation, if requested, before adequate consideration can be given to this application. The Applicant realizes that any present or future indebtedness of the Applicant, or the Applicant's business, to the Corporation may become due and payable if any information provided by the Applicant to the Corporation proves to be inaccurate or incomplete.

(e) That in applying for this financing and, in the event that the Corporation approves such application, the Applicant's personal and confidential business information will be requested from the Applicant and/or collected from third parties that have information about the Applicant's business and personal financial status for the purposes of determining the Applicant's eligibility for financing and reporting to the Government of Canada.

(f) That there has been no material adverse change in the financial position or operations of the Applicant since the end of the last fiscal year of the Applicant for which a balance sheet and a profit and loss statement have been furnished.

(g) That there is no litigation in course or threatened, nor any proceedings before any court, tribunal, governmental board of agency now in course or threatened, and that there is no unexecuted judgment rendered against the Applicant, except:

(Litigation/proceedings involving the Applicant and/or any close related individual or corporation should be reported.)

PRIVACY STATEMENT

INTRODUCTION

Centre For Business and Economic Development (hereinafter referred to as CBED) is a federally supported not-for-profit community organization with a volunteer Board of Directors and professional staff whose purpose is to support community economic development and small business growth through business loans or loan guarantees. This brochure summarizes CBED's privacy policies and procedures that have been developed to comply with Canada's Personal Information Protection and Electronic Documents Act ("PIPEDA"). PIPEDA sets out rules for the collection, use and disclosure of a client's or customer's personal information, as well as safeguarding that information in the course of commercial activity as defined in the legislation.

WHAT IS "PERSONAL INFORMATION"

Under PIPEDA, "Personal Information" means any information that is identifiable to an individual, including name, address, telephone number, Social Insurance Number, and date of birth. It also includes, but is not limited to, other information relating to identity, such as, nationality, gender, marital status, financial information and credit history.

PURPOSES FOR PERSONAL INFORMATION

CBED collects only that personal information required to assess a prospective applicant's eligibility for financial assistance, as well as to report to Federal Economic Development Agency for Southern Ontario (FedDev), the federal department that administers the Community Futures Program in Southern Ontario.

CONSENT

At the time of completing a loan application, the express, written consent of the individual applicant will be sought for the collection, use, retention and disclosure of their personal information for the purposes set out in CBED's privacy policy. An applicant may choose not to provide some or all of the personal information requested, but if CBED is unable to collect sufficient information to validate a financing request, the application for financing may be turned down.

ACCURACY

CBED endeavours to ensure that all personal information in active files are accurate, current and complete. When a client notifies CBED that his or her personal information requires correction or updating, the necessary changes will be made. Information contained in closed files is not updated.

LIMITING USE, RETENTION & DISCLOSURE

CBED uses and retains personal information for only those purposes to which the individual has consented. Personal information will be disclosed to only those CBED employees, volunteer members of committees and/or Board of Directors that need to know the information for the purposes set out in the CBED Privacy Policy.

SAFEGUARDS

CBED utilizes a number of physical, organizational and technological measures to safeguard personal information from unauthorized access or inadvertent disclosure in accordance with its Information Security, Retention and Destruction Policy, including but not limited to:

Physical - Active files are stored in locked filing cabinets located in work areas restricted to CBED employees and authorized volunteers. Closed files are stored in locked cabinets for a period of seven years, after which, the information is shredded prior to disposal.

Organizational - CBED employees, volunteers, and third party service providers sign confidentiality agreements binding them to safeguarding the confidentiality of personal information to which they have access.

Technological - Personal information contained on CBED computers and the electronic database are password protected. As well, the Internet server or router has firewall protection to protect against virus attacks and hacking into the database.

PRIVACY STATEMENT (CON'T)

Electronic Transmission of Information - Notwithstanding the technological safeguards implemented by CBED, all Internet transmissions are susceptible to possible loss, misrouting, interception and misuse. For this reason, as part of the application that individual's sign consenting to their personal information being collected, used, retained, and disclosed, CBED will assume that it has the individual's consent to communicate via the Internet unless notified to the contrary.

INDIVIDUAL ACCESS

An individual who wishes to review or verify what personal information is held by CBED, may do so by making a request, in writing to the CBED's Chief Privacy Officer. Upon verification of the individual's identity, the Chief Privacy Office will provide a written report within 60 days.

INVESTIGATING COMPLAINTS

Any concern or issue about CBED's personal information handling practises may be made, in writing, to the Chief Privacy Officer. Upon verification of the individual's identity, the Chief Privacy Officer will act promptly to investigate the complaint and provide a written report to the individual.

If the individual is dissatisfied with the report provided by the Chief Privacy Officer, or feels that the corrective action taken by CBED is insufficient, the individual may direct a complaint to the Federal Privacy Commissioner in writing. The address of the Federal Privacy Commissioner is provided in this Privacy Statement for your convenience.

AMENDMENTS TO OUR PRIVACY POLICY

This Privacy Statement is a summary of CBED's Privacy Policy. For full particulars of CBED's privacy policies and procedures, please request a copy of the Privacy Policy from CBED or a copy may be obtained from the Internet website at: www.centreforbusiness.ca. The CBED Privacy Policy and this Privacy Statement are in effect May 25, 2004 and is retroactive to January 1, 2004. CBED's Privacy Policy and this Privacy Statement may be updated from time to time to reflect amendments in applicable Federal and Provincial laws. Any changes to this Privacy Policy will be posted on CBED website and will apply to personal information collected from the date of the posting of the revised Privacy Policy.
